SCHEDULE

Preliminary

1. Name of the Company

The name of the Company is Australia Telugu Community and Cultural Centre Ltd ('the Company').

2. Type of Company

The Company is a not-for-profit public company limited by guarantee, which is established to be, and to continue as, a charity.

3. Limited liability of members

The liability of members is limited to the amount of the guarantee in clause 4.

4. The guarantee

Each member must contribute an amount not more than $10.00 (the guarantee) to the property of the Company if the Company is wound up while being a member, or within 12 months after they stop being a member, and this contribution is required to pay for the:

- (a) debts and liabilities of the Company incurred before the member stopped being a member; or
- (b) costs of winding up.

5. Definitions

In this constitution, words and phrases have the meaning set out in clauses 74 and 76.

Charitable purposes and powers

6. Objects

- 6.1 The objects of the Company are to promote Telugu literature, film, music and performing arts.
- 6.2 Without limitation, the Company will operate the Australia Telugu Community and Cultural Centre Fund (Public Fund) as set out in the Schedule.

7. Responsible Persons - Board of Management

The Company will appoint a board of management comprising of a majority of responsible persons, being persons with a degree of responsibility to the public as required by Tax Ruling TR 95/27.

8. Powers

Subject to clause 9, the Company has the following powers, which may only be used to carry out its purposes set out in clause 6:

- (a) the powers of an individual; and
- (b) all the powers of a company limited by guarantee under the Corporations Act.

9. Not-for-profit

- 9.1 The Company must not distribute any income or assets directly or indirectly to its members, except as provided in clauses 9.2 and 14.
- 9.2 Clause 9.1 does not stop the Company from doing the following things, provided they are done in good faith:

- (a) paying a member for goods or services they have provided or expenses they have properly incurred at fair and reasonable rates or rates more favorable to the Company; or
- (b) making a payment to a member in carrying out the Company's charitable purposes.

10. Bank account

- 10.1 The Company must maintain a bank account for its charitable activities.
- 10.2 The Company must maintain separate bank accounts for each of its tax-deductible funds, as set out in the Schedule.
- 10.3 The Company must credit monetary gifts and proceeds of sale on gifted property to the bank account.
- 10.4 The Company must not credit to the bank account money or property that is not intended for the Company.
- 10.5 Interest earned on the Company's bank account must be credited to that account.
- 10.6 The Company may use its funds to pay for the reasonable costs of operating and managing the Company. Examples of such costs include fundraising expenses, bank fees and charges, stationery costs, staffing costs and accounting and audit fees.
- 10.7 The Company must issue a receipt for gifts and must ensure that the receipt states:
 - (i) the name of the Company and the name of the Public Fund in receipt of the gift (if applicable) ;
 - (ii) the Australian Business Number of the Company ;
 - (iii) the fact that the receipt is for a gift ;
 - (iv) the number of gifts of money;
 - (v) a description of any gifts of property;
 - (vi) the date of the gift; and
 - (vii) any other matter required to be included on the receipt pursuant to the requirements of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

11. Charity registration and endorsement as a tax-deductible gift recipient

- 11.1 The Company has applied to the Australian Taxation Office ('ATO') and the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission ('ACNC') on 20/08/2019 and received the endorsement of the Company as an income tax exempt charity under the charitable subtype advancing culture.
- 11.2 The Company has applied (on 13/10/2019) to the ATO and the Register of Cultural Organisations for endorsement of the Company and its Public Fund as a tax-deductible gift recipient under item 12.1.1. of section 30.100 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

12. Amending the constitution

- 12.1 Subject to clause 12.2, the members may amend this constitution by passing a Special Resolution.
- 12.2 The members must not pass a Special Resolution that amends this constitution if passing it causes the Company to no longer be a charity, other than a Special Resolution to wind up the Company.

12.3 The ATO and the ACNC must be notified of any changes to this constitution or rules that affect the Company's objects, responsible persons, dissolution, its winding up provisions in clauses 6-7, 9, or clauses 13-14 or the provisions of its Schedule relating to its tax-deductible funds.

Winding up

13. Surplus Assets not to be distributed to members

If the Company is wound up, any Surplus Assets must not be distributed to a member or a former member of the Company, unless that member or former member is a charity described in clause 14.1.

14. Distribution of Surplus Assets

14.1 Subject to the Corporations Act and any other applicable Act, and any court order, any Surplus Assets (including 'gift funds' defined in clause 14.4) that remain after the Company is wound up must be distributed to one or more charities:

- (a) with charitable purpose(s) similar to, or inclusive of, the purposes in clause 6;
- (b) which also prohibit the distribution of any Surplus Assets to its members to at least the same extent as the Company; and
- (c) is an organisation listed on the Register of Cultural Organisations.

The decision as to which entity or entities the Company should distribute its Surplus Assets to on winding up, must be determined by the members of the Company at a General Meeting, on a majority of votes, following the voting procedures set out in clauses: 30, 31 and 38 to 43.

Monies or property remaining in any of the Company's tax-deductible funds (as set out in the schedule) shall be transferred to other tax deductible funds, with substantially similar objects.

Members

15. Membership and register of members.

15.1 The members of the Company are:

- (a) Initial Members (see clause 74 for definition); and
- (b) any other person that the directors allow to be a member, in accordance with this constitution.

15.2 The Company must establish and maintain a register of members. The register of members must be kept by the secretary and must contain:

- (a) for each current member:
 - i. name;
 - ii. address;
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and
 - iv. date the member was entered on to the register.
- (b) for each person who stopped being a member in the last 7 years:
 - i. name.
 - ii. address.
 - iii. any alternative address nominated by the member for the service of notices, and

- iv. dates the membership started and ended.

The Company must give current members access to the register of members.

Information that is accessed from the register of members must only be used in a manner relevant to the interests or rights of members.

16. Who can be a member?

16.1 A person who supports the purposes of the Company is eligible to apply to be a member of the Company under clause 17.

16.2 In this clause, 'person' means.

- (a) an individual over 18 years of age who is a donor member of TAAI; or
- (b) an individual over 18 years of age, a permanent resident or citizen of Australia and donates a minimum of $5000 to the ATCCC public fund; or
- (c) an incorporated member.

17. How to apply to become a member of ATCCC.

A person (as defined in clause 16.2) may apply to become a member of the Company by writing to the secretary stating that they:

- (a) want to become a member.
- (b) support the purposes of the Company; and
- (c) agree to comply with the Company's constitution, including paying the guarantee under clause 4 if required.

18. Directors decide whether to approve membership.

18.1 The directors must consider an application for membership within a reasonable time after the secretary receives the application.

18.2 The directors retain sole discretion whether or not to approve an application for membership as per the criteria under clause 16.

18.3 The directors may reject an application for membership of the Company without giving any reason for the rejection.

18.4 If the directors approve an application, the secretary must as soon as possible:

- (a) enter the new member on the register of members; and
- (b) write to the applicant to tell them that their application was approved, and the date that their membership started (see clause 19).

If the directors reject an application, the secretary must write to the applicant as soon as possible to tell them that their application has been rejected but does not have to give reasons.

For the avoidance of doubt, the directors may approve an application even if the application does not state the matters listed in clauses 17(a) - (c). In that case, by applying to be a member, the applicant agrees to those three matters.

19. When a person becomes a member

Other than Initial Members, an applicant will become a member when they are entered on the register of members.

20. When a person stop being a member

20.1 A person immediately stops being a member if they:

- (a) die;

- (b) become of unsound mind or become mentally incapacitated or if the member or his or her estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the laws relating to mental health;
- (c) become bankrupt or insolvent;
- (d) are wound up or otherwise dissolved or deregistered (for an incorporated member);
- (e) resign, by writing to the secretary;
- (f) are expelled under clause 23;
- (g) are convicted of an indictable offence; or
- (h) have not responded within three months to a written request from the secretary or a director that the member confirms in writing that they want to remain a member.

20.2 In this clause (as in clause 16), 'person' means an individual or an incorporated body.

21. Membership not transferable

Membership of the Company is not transferable, whether by operation of law or otherwise. All rights and privileges of membership of the Company will cease upon a member ceasing to be a member of the Company or upon the winding-up of the Company.

Dispute resolution and disciplinary procedures

22. Dispute resolution

22.1 The dispute resolution procedure in this clause applies to disputes (disagreements) under this constitution between a member or director and:

- (a) one or more members;
- (b) one or more directors; or
- (c) the Company.

22.2 A member must not start a dispute resolution procedure in relation to a matter which is the subject of a disciplinary procedure under clause 23 until the disciplinary procedure is completed.

22.3 Those involved in the dispute must try to resolve it between themselves within 14 days of knowing about it.

22.4 If those involved in the dispute do not resolve it under clause 22.3, they must within 10 days:

- (a) tell the directors about the dispute in writing;
- (b) agree or request that a mediator be appointed; and
- (c) attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation.

22.5 The mediator:

- (a) must be chosen by agreement of those involved, or
- (b) where those involved do not agree:
 - i. for disputes between members, must be a person chosen by the directors; or
 - ii. for other disputes, must be a person chosen by either the Commissioner of the ACNC or the president of the law institute or society in the state or territory in which the Company has its registered office.

22.6 A mediator chosen by the directors under clause 22.5(b)(i):

- (a) may be a member or former member of the Company;
- (b) must not have a personal interest in the dispute; and
- (c) must not be biased towards or against anyone involved in the dispute.

22.7 When conducting the mediation, the mediator must:

- (a) allow those involved a reasonable chance to be heard;
- (b) allow those involved a reasonable chance to review any written statements;
- (c) ensure that those involved are given natural justice; and
- (d) not make a decision on the dispute.

23. Disciplining members

23.1 In accordance with this clause, the directors may resolve to warn, suspend or expel a member from the Company if the directors consider that the:

- (a) member has breached this constitution; or
- (b) the member's behavior is causing, has caused, or is likely to cause harm to the Company.

23.2 At least 14 days before the directors' meeting at which a resolution under clause 23.1 will be considered, the secretary must notify the member in writing:

- (a) that the directors are considering a resolution to warn, suspend or expel the member;
- (b) that this resolution will be considered at a directors' meeting and the date of that meeting;
- (c) what the member is said to have done or not done;
- (d) the nature of the resolution that has been proposed; and
- (e) that the member may provide an explanation to the directors, and details of how to do so.

23.3 Before the directors pass any resolution under clause 23.1, the member must be given a chance to explain or defend themselves by:

- (a) sending the directors, a written explanation before that directors' meeting; and/or
- (b) speaking at the meeting.

23.4 After considering any explanation under clause 23.3, the directors may:

- (a) take no further action;
- (b) warn the member;
- (c) suspend the member's rights as a member for a period of no more than 12 months;
- (d) expel the member;

- (e) refer the decision to an unbiased, independent person on conditions that the directors consider appropriate (however, the person can only make a decision that the directors could have made under this clause); or
- (f) require the matter to be determined at a General Meeting.

The directors cannot fine a member.

The secretary must give written notice to the member of the decision under clause 23.4 as soon as possible.

Disciplinary procedures must be completed as soon as reasonably practical.

There will be no liability for any loss or injury suffered by the member as a result of any decision made by the directors in good faith under this clause.

General Meetings of members

24. General Meetings called by directors.

24.1 The directors may call a General Meeting.

24.2 If members who hold membership for more than 12 months and possess at least 10 votes or 25% of the total membership (whichever is higher) make a request to the Company for a General Meeting to be held, the directors must:

- (a) within 21 days of the members' request, give all members notice of a General Meeting; and
- (b) hold the General Meeting within 2 months of the members' request.

The percentage of votes that members have (in clause 24.2) is to be calculated as at midnight before the members request the meeting.

The members who make the request for a General Meeting must:

- (a) state in the request any resolution to be proposed at the meeting;
- (b) sign the request; and
- (c) give the request to the Company.

24.5 Separate copies of a document setting out the request may be signed by members if the wording of the request is the same in each copy.

25. General Meetings called by members.

25.1 If the directors do not call the meeting within 21 days of the meeting being requested under clause 24.2, 50% or more of the members who made the request and who have been members for more than 12 months, may call and arrange to hold a General Meeting.

25.2 To call and hold a meeting under clause 25.1 the members must:

- (a) as far as possible, follow the procedures for General Meetings set out in this constitution;
- (b) call the meeting using the list of members on the Company's member register, which the Company must provide to the members making the request at no cost; and
- (c) hold the General Meeting within three months after the request was given to the Company.

25.3 The Company must pay the members who request the General Meeting any reasonable expenses they incur because the directors did not call and hold the meeting.

26. Annual General Meeting

26.1 An annual General Meeting must be held:

- (a) within 18 months after registration of the Company; and
- (b) after the first annual General Meeting, at least once in every calendar year.

26.2 Even if these items are not set out in the notice of meeting, the business of an annual General Meeting may include:

- (a) a review of the Company's activities;
- (b) a review of the Company's finances;
- (c) any auditor's report;
- (d) the election of directors; and
- (e) the appointment and payment of auditors, if any.

Before or at the annual General Meeting, the directors must give information to the members on the Company's activities and finances during the period since the last annual General Meeting.

The chairperson of the annual General Meeting must give members as a whole a reasonable opportunity at the meeting to ask questions or make comments about the management of the Company.

27. Notice of General Meetings

27.1 Notice of a General Meeting must be given to:

- (a) each member entitled to vote at the meeting;
- (b) each director; and
- (c) the auditor (if any).

27.2 Notice of a General Meeting must be provided in writing at least 21 days before the meeting.

27.3 Subject to clause 27.4, notice of a meeting may be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if:

- (a) for an annual General Meeting, all the members entitled to attend and vote at the annual General Meeting agree beforehand; or
- (b) for any other General Meeting, members with at least 95% of the votes that may be cast at the meeting agree beforehand.

27.4 Notice of a meeting cannot be provided less than 21 days before the meeting if a resolution will be moved to:

- (a) remove a director;
- (b) appoint a director in order to replace a director who was removed; or
- (c) remove an auditor.

27.5 Notice of a General Meeting must include:

- (a) the place, date and time for the meeting (and if the meeting is to be held in two or more venues in accordance with clause 31.1, the technology that will be used to facilitate this);
- (b) the general nature of the meeting's business;
- (c) if applicable, that a Special Resolution is to be proposed and the words of the proposed resolution;

- (d) a statement that members have the right to appoint proxies and that, if a member appoints a proxy:
 - i. the proxy does not need to be a member of the Company;
 - ii. the proxy form must be delivered to the Company at its registered address or the address (including an electronic address) specified in the notice of the meeting; and
 - iii. the proxy form must be delivered to the Company at least 48 hours before the meeting.

27.6 If a General Meeting is adjourned (put off) for one month or more, the members must be given new notice of the resumed meeting.

28. Quorum at General Meetings

28.1 For a General Meeting to be held, a quorum of at least 10 members or 25% of the total membership (whichever is higher) must be present in person, by proxy or by representative for the whole meeting. When determining whether a quorum is present, a person may only be counted once (even if that person is a representative or proxy of more than one member);

28.2 No business may be conducted at a General Meeting if a quorum is not present;

28.3 If there is no quorum present within 30 minutes after the starting time stated in the notice of General Meeting, the General Meeting is adjourned to the date, time and place that the chairperson specifies. If the chairperson does not specify one or more of those things, the meeting is adjourned to if the:

- (a) date is not specified – the same day in the next week;
- (b) time is not specified – the same time; and
- (c) place is not specified – the same place.

28.4 If no quorum is present at the resumed meeting within 30 minutes after the starting time set for that meeting, the meeting is cancelled.

29. Auditor's right to attend General Meetings 29.1

Where the Company engages an auditor:

- (a) the auditor is entitled to attend any General Meeting and to be heard by the members on any part of the business of the meeting that concerns the auditor in the capacity of auditor; and
- (b) the Company must give the auditor any communications relating to the General Meeting that a member of the Company is entitled to receive.

30. Representatives of incorporated members

30.1 An incorporated member may appoint as a representative:

- (a) one individual to represent the member at meetings and to sign circular resolutions under clause 37; and
- (b) the same individual or another individual for the purpose of being appointed or elected as a director.

30.2 The appointment of a representative by a member must:

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) include the name of the representative;
- (c) be signed on behalf of the member; and
- (d) be given to the Company or, for representation at a meeting, be given to the chairperson before the meeting starts.

A representative has all the rights of a member relevant to the purposes of the appointment as a representative.

The appointment may be standing (ongoing).

31. Using technology to hold General Meetings

31.1 The Company may hold a General Meeting at two or more venues using any technology that gives the members as a whole a reasonable opportunity to participate, including to hear and be heard.

31.2 Anyone using this technology is taken to be present in person at the meeting.

32. Chairperson for General Meetings

32.1 The Elected Chairperson is entitled to chair General Meetings.

32.2 The Members Present and entitled to vote at a General Meeting may choose a director or member to be the chairperson for that meeting if:

- (a) there is no Elected Chairperson; or
- (b) the Elected Chairperson is not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting; or
- (c) the Elected Chairperson is present but says they do not wish to act as chairperson of the meeting.

33. Role of the Chairperson

33.1 The Chairperson is responsible for leading the board in achieving the strategic objectives and outcomes of the Company

- (a) Works with the board to set strategy, goals and objectives for the board and ensures that they are met
- (b) acts as contact point for board members and
- (c) represents the Company with external stakeholders and organisations.

33.2 The chairperson is responsible for the conduct of the General Meeting, and for this purpose must give members a reasonable opportunity to make comments and ask questions (including to the auditor, if any).

33.3 The chairperson does not have a casting vote.

34. Adjournment of General Meetings

34.1 If a quorum is present, a General Meeting must be adjourned if a majority of Members Present direct the chairperson to adjourn it.

34.2 Only unfinished business may be dealt with at a meeting resumed after an adjournment.

Members' resolutions and statements

35. Members' resolutions and statements

35.1 Members with at least 10 votes or 25% of the votes that may be cast on a resolution (whichever is higher, may give:

- (a) written notice to the Company of a resolution they propose to move at a General Meeting ('members' resolution'); and/or
- (b) a written request to the Company that the Company give all of its members a statement about a proposed resolution or any other matter that may properly be considered at a General Meeting ('members' statement').

A notice of a members' resolution must set out the wording of the proposed resolution and be signed by the members proposing the resolution.

A request to distribute a members' statement must set out the statement to be distributed and be signed by the members making the request.

Separate copies of a document setting out the notice or request may be signed by members if the wording is the same in each copy.

The percentage of votes that members have (as described in clause 35.1) is to be calculated as at midnight before the request or notice is given to the Company.

If the Company has been given notice of a members' resolution under clause 35.1(a), the resolution must be considered at the next General Meeting held more than two months after the notice is given.

This clause does not limit any other right that a member has to propose a resolution at a General Meeting.

36. Company must give notice of proposed resolution or distribute statement

36.1 If the Company has been given a notice or request under clause 35:

- (a) in time to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, it must do so at the Company's cost; or
- (b) too late to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members with a notice of meeting, then the members who proposed the resolution or made the request must pay the expenses reasonably incurred by the Company in giving members notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement. However, at a General Meeting, the Members Present may pass a resolution that the Company will pay these expenses.

36.2 The Company does not need to send the notice of proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members if:

- (a) it is more than 1000 words long;
- (b) the directors consider it may be defamatory;
- (c) clause 36.1(b) applies, and the members who proposed the resolution or made the request have not paid the Company enough money to cover the cost of sending the notice of the proposed members' resolution or a copy of the members' statement to members; or
- (d) in the case of a proposed members' resolution, the resolution does not relate to a matter that may be properly considered at a General Meeting or is otherwise not a valid resolution able to be put to the members.

37. Circular resolutions of members

37.1 Subject to clause 37.3, the directors may put a resolution to the members to pass without a General Meeting being held (a circular resolution).

37.2 The directors must notify the auditor (if any) as soon as possible that a circular resolution has or will be put to members, and set out the wording of the resolution.

37.3 Circular resolutions cannot be used:

- (a) for a resolution to remove an auditor, appoint a director or remove a director;
- (b) for passing a Special Resolution;
- (c) where the Corporations Act or this constitution requires a meeting to be held; or

- (d) to determine the distribution of Surplus Assets on the winding up of the Company (as set out in clause 14.

A circular resolution is passed if all the members entitled to vote on the resolution sign or agree to the circular resolution, in the manner set out in clause 37.5 or clause 37.6.

Members may sign:

- (a) a single document setting out the circular resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution; or
- (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording is the same in each copy.

37.6 The Company may send a circular resolution by email to members and members may agree by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

Voting at General Meetings

38. Eligibility and number of votes per member

To be eligible to vote, a member should have been a member for at least 30-days prior to general meeting notification.

Each eligible member has one vote.

39. Challenge to member's right to vote.

39.1 A member or the chairperson may only challenge a person's right to vote at a General Meeting at that meeting.

39.2 If a challenge is made under clause 39.1, the chairperson must decide whether or not the person may vote. The chairperson's decision is final.

40. How voting is carried out

40.1 Voting must be conducted and decided by:

- (a) a show of hands;
- (b) a vote in writing; or
- (c) another method chosen by the chairperson that is fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

Before a vote is taken, the chairperson must state whether any proxy votes have been received and, if so, how the proxy votes will be cast.

On a show of hands, the chairperson's decision is conclusive evidence of the result of the vote.

The chairperson and the meeting minutes do not need to state the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against on a show of hands.

41. When and how a vote in writing must be held

41.1 A vote in writing may be demanded on any resolution instead of or after a vote by a show of hands by:

- (a) at least five Members Present;
- (b) Members Present with at least 5% of the votes that may be passed on the resolution on the vote in writing (worked out as at the midnight before the vote in writing is demanded); or (c) the chairperson.

A vote in writing must be taken when and how the chairperson directs, unless clause 41.3 applies.

A vote in writing must be held immediately if it is demanded under clause 41.1:

- (a) for the election of a chairperson under clause 32.2; or
- (b) to decide whether to adjourn the meeting.

A demand for a vote in writing may be withdrawn.

42. Appointment of proxy

42.1 A member may appoint a proxy to attend and vote at a General Meeting on their behalf.

42.2 A proxy does not need to be a member of the Company.

42.3 A proxy appointed to attend and vote for a member has the same rights as the member to:

- (a) speak at the meeting;
- (b) vote in a vote in writing (but only to the extent allowed by the appointment); and
- (c) join in to demand a vote in writing under clause 41.1.

42.4 An appointment of proxy (proxy form) must be signed by the member appointing the proxy and must contain:

- (a) the member's name and address;
- (b) the Company's name;
- (c) the proxy's name or the name of the office held by the proxy; and (d) the meeting(s) at which the appointment may be used.

A proxy appointment may be standing (ongoing).

Proxy forms must be received by the Company at the address stated in the notice under clause 27.5(d) or at the Company's registered address at least 48 hours before a meeting.

A proxy does not have the authority to speak and vote for a member at a meeting while the member is at the meeting.

Unless the Company receives written notice before the start or resumption of a General Meeting at which a proxy votes, a vote cast by the proxy is valid even if, before the proxy votes, the appointing member:

- (a) dies;
- (b) is mentally incapacitated;
- (c) revokes the proxy's appointment; or
- (d) revokes the authority of a representative or agent who appointed the proxy.

42.9 A proxy appointment may specify the way the proxy must vote on a particular resolution.

43. Voting by proxy

43.1 A proxy is not entitled to vote on a show of hands (but this does not prevent a member appointed as a proxy from voting as a member on a show of hands).

43.2 When a vote in writing is held:

- (a) a proxy does not need to vote, unless the proxy appointment specifies the way they must vote;
- (b) if the way they must vote is specified on the proxy form, must vote that way; and
- (c) if the proxy is also a member or holds more than one proxy, may cast the votes held in different ways.

Directors

44. Number of directors

The Company must have at least three and no more than fifteen directors.

45. Election and appointment of directors

45.1 The initial directors are the people who have agreed to act as directors and who are named as proposed directors in the application for registration of the Company.

45.2 Apart from the initial directors and directors appointed under clause 45.5, the members may elect a director by a resolution passed in a General Meeting.

45.3 Each of the directors must be appointed by a separate resolution, unless:

- (a) the Members Present have first passed a resolution that the appointments may be voted on together; and
- (b) no votes were cast against that resolution.

45.4 A person is eligible for election as a director of the Company if that person:

- (a) is a Donor Member of Telugu Association of Australia Inc (ABN 28 354 653 472) (TAAI) or Member of ATCCC;
- (b) is nominated by two members or representatives of members entitled to vote (unless the person was previously elected as a director at a General Meeting and has been a director since that meeting);
- (c) gives the Company their signed consent to act as a director of the Company;
- (d) is not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act; and
- (e) Is not an Immediate Family Member to another nominee.

45.5 The directors may appoint a person as a director to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional director if that person:

- (a) is a member of the Company, or a representative of an incorporated member (appointed under clause 30);
- (b) gives the Company their signed consent to act as a director of the Company; and
- (c) is not ineligible to be a director under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.

If the number of directors is reduced to fewer than three or is less than the number required for a quorum, the continuing directors may act for the purpose of increasing the number of directors to three (or higher if required for a quorum) or calling a General Meeting, but for no other purpose.

The board of directors shall consist of at least the following persons as directors in an ex-officio capacity:

- (a) the President or acting President of TAAI; and
- (b) at least one member of the Advisory Board of TAAI.

46. Election of chairperson

The directors must elect a director as the Company's Elected Chairperson.

47. Term of office

47.1 Other than a director appointed under clause 45.5, a director's term of office is nominally for 2 years which starts at the end of the annual General Meeting at which they are elected and finishes at the end of two annual General Meetings.

47.2 A director who retires under clause 47.1 may nominate for election or reelection, subject to clause 47.3

47.3 A director who has held office for a continuous period of nine years or more may only be re-appointed or re-elected by a Special Resolution.

48. When a director stop being a director

A director stops being a director if they:

- (a) give written notice of resignation as a director to the Company;
- (b) die;
- (c) are removed as a director by a resolution of the members;
- (d) stop being a member of the Company;
- (e) are a representative of a member, and that member stops being a member;
- (f) are a representative of a member, and the member notifies the Company that the representative is no longer a representative
- (g) are absent for 3 consecutive directors' meetings without approval from the directors; or
- (h) become ineligible to be a director of the Company under the Corporations Act or the ACNC Act.

Powers of directors

49. Powers of directors

49.1 The directors are responsible for managing and directing the activities of the Company to achieve the purposes set out in clause 6.

49.2 The directors may use all the powers of the Company except for powers that, under the Corporations Act or this constitution, may only be used by members.

49.3 The directors must decide on the responsible financial management of the Company including:

- (a) any suitable written delegations of power under clause 50; and
- (b) how money will be managed, such as how electronic transfers, negotiable instruments or cheques must be authorized and signed or otherwise approved.

49.4 The directors cannot remove a director or auditor. Directors and auditors may only be removed by a members' resolution at a General Meeting.

50. Delegation of directors' powers

50.1 The directors may delegate any of their powers and functions to a committee, a director, an employee of the Company (such as a chief executive officer) or any other person, as they consider appropriate.

50.2 The delegation must be recorded in the Company's minute book.

51. Payments to directors

51.1 The Company must not pay fees to a director for acting as a director.

51.2 The Company may:

- (a) pay a director for work they do for the Company, other than as a director, if the amount is no more than a reasonable fee for the work done; or
- (b) reimburse a director for expenses properly incurred by the director in connection with the affairs of the Company.

51.3 Any payment made under clause 51.2 must be approved by the directors without the director making the financial gain being present for the discussion.

51.4 The Company may pay premiums for insurance indemnifying directors, as allowed for by law (including the Corporations Act) and this constitution.

52. Execution of documents

The Company may execute a document without using a common seal if the document is signed by:

- (a) the chairperson and a director; or
- (b) a director and the secretary.

Duties of directors

53. Duties of directors

The directors must comply with their duties as directors under legislation and common law (judge-made law), and with the duties described in governance standard 5 of the regulations made under the ACNC Act which are:

- (a) to exercise their powers and discharge their duties with the degree of care and diligence that a reasonable individual would exercise if they were a director of the Company;
- (b) to act in good faith in the best interests of the Company and to further the charitable purposes of the Company set out in clause 6;
- (c) not to misuse their position as a director;
- (d) not to misuse information they gain in their role as a director;
- (e) to disclose any perceived or actual material conflicts of interest in the manner set out in clause 54;
- (f) to ensure that the financial affairs of the Company are managed responsibly; and
- (g) not to allow the Company to operate while it is insolvent.

54. Conflicts of interest

54.1 A director must disclose the nature and extent of any actual or perceived material conflict of interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution):

- (a) to the other directors; or
- (b) if all of the directors have the same conflict of interest, to the members at the next General Meeting, or at an earlier time if reasonable to do so.

54.2 The disclosure of a conflict of interest by a director must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

54.3 Each director who has a material personal interest in a matter that is being considered at a meeting of directors (or that is proposed in a circular resolution) must not, except as provided under clause 54.4:

- (a) be present at the meeting while the matter is being discussed; or
- (b) vote on the matter.

54.4 A director may still be present and vote if:

- (a) their interest arises because they are a member of the Company, and the other members have the same interest;
- (b) their interest relates to an insurance contract that insures, or would insure, the director against liabilities that the director incurs as a director of the Company (see clause 72);
- (c) their interest relates to a payment by the Company under clause 71 (indemnity), or any contract relating to an indemnity that is allowed under the Corporations Act;
- (d) the Australian Securities and Investments Commission ('ASIC') makes an order allowing the director to vote on the matter; or
- (e) the directors who do not have a material personal interest in the matter pass a resolution that:
 - (i) identifies the director, the nature and extent of the director's interest in the matter and how it relates to the affairs of the Company; and
 - (ii) says that those directors are satisfied that the interest should not stop the director from voting or being present.

54.5 A director must disclose to the Board if they are related (per definition of 'relative' stated under clause 74) to any of the other directors.

Directors' meetings

55. When the directors meet

The directors may decide how often, where and when they meet.

56. Calling directors' meetings

56.1 A director may call a directors' meeting by giving reasonable notice to all of the other directors.

56.2 A director may give notice in writing or by any other means of communication that has previously been agreed to by all of the directors.

57. Chairperson for directors' meetings

57.1 The Elected Chairperson is entitled to chair directors' meetings.

57.2 The directors at a directors' meeting may choose a director to be the chairperson for that meeting if the Elected Chairperson is:

- (a) not present within 30 minutes after the starting time set for the meeting; or
- (b) present but does not want to act as chairperson of the meeting.

58. Quorum at directors' meetings

58.1 The quorum for a directors' meeting should be at least 50% of the Board.

58.2 A quorum must be present for the whole directors' meeting.

59. Using technology to hold directors' meetings

59.1 The directors may hold their meetings by using any technology (such as video or teleconferencing) that is agreed to by all of the directors.

59.2 The directors' agreement may be a standing (ongoing) one.

59.3 A director may only withdraw their consent within a reasonable period before the meeting.

60. Passing directors' resolutions

A directors' resolution must be passed by a majority of the votes cast by directors present and entitled to vote on the resolution.

61. Circular resolutions of directors

61.1 The directors may pass a circular resolution without a directors' meeting being held.

61.2 A circular resolution is passed if all the directors entitled to vote on the resolution sign or otherwise agree to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 61.3 or clause 61.4.

61.3 Each director may sign:

- (a) a single document setting out the resolution and containing a statement that they agree to the resolution; or
- (b) separate copies of that document, as long as the wording of the resolution is the same in each copy.

The Company may send a circular resolution by email to the directors and the directors may agree to the resolution by sending a reply email to that effect, including the text of the resolution in their reply.

A circular resolution is passed when the last director signs or otherwise agrees to the resolution in the manner set out in clause 61.3 or clause 61.4.

Secretary

62. Appointment and role of secretary

62.1 The Company must have at least one secretary, who may also be a director.

62.2 A secretary must be appointed by the directors (after giving the Company their signed consent to act as secretary of the Company) and may be removed by the directors.

62.3 The directors must decide the terms and conditions under which the secretary is appointed, including any remuneration.

62.4 The role of the secretary includes:

- (a) maintaining a register of the Company's members; and
- (b) maintaining the minutes and other records of General Meetings (including notices of meetings), directors' meetings and circular resolutions.
- (c) facilitate corporate governance and ensure compliance of the board with applicable laws and regulations.
- (d) ensure required statutory annual returns and reports are lodged with the appropriate regulatory authorities.

Minutes and records

63. Minutes and records

- 63.1 The Company must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
- (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of General Meetings;
 - (b) minutes of circular resolutions of members;
 - (c) a copy of a notice of each General Meeting; and
 - (d) a copy of a members' statement distributed to members under clause 36.
- 63.2 The Company must, within one month, make and keep the following records:
- (a) minutes of proceedings and resolutions of directors' meetings (including meetings of any committees); and
 - (b) minutes of circular resolutions of directors.
- 63.3 To allow members to inspect the Company's records:
- (a) the Company must give a member access to the records set out in clause 63.1; and
 - (b) the directors may authorise a member to inspect other records of the Company, including records referred to in clause 63.2 and clause 64.1.
- 63.4 The directors must ensure that minutes of a General Meeting or a directors' meeting are signed within a reasonable time after the meeting by:
- (a) the chairperson of the meeting; or
 - (b) the chairperson of the next meeting.
- 63.5 The directors must ensure that minutes of the passing of a circular resolution (of members or directors) are signed by a director within a reasonable time after the resolution is passed.

64. Financial and related records

- 64.1 The Company must make and keep written financial records that:
- (a) correctly record and explain its transactions and financial position and performance; and
 - (b) enable true and fair financial statements to be prepared and to be audited.
- The Company must also keep written records that correctly record its operations.
- The Company must retain its records for at least 7 years.
- The directors must take reasonable steps to ensure that the Company's records are kept safe.
- All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer and one other member of the board.

By-laws

65. By-laws

- 65.1 The directors may pass a resolution to make by-laws to give effect to this constitution.
- 65.2 Members and directors must comply with by-laws as if they were part of this constitution.

Notice

66. What is notice

- 66.1 Anything written to or from the Company under any clause in this constitution is written notice and is subject to clauses 67 to 69, unless specified otherwise.

66.2 Clauses 67 to 69 do not apply to a notice of proxy under clause 42.6.

67. Notice to the Company

Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to the Company, the directors or the secretary by:

- (a) delivering it to the Company's registered office;
- (b) posting it to the Company's registered office or to another address chosen by the Company for notice to be provided;
- (c) sending it to an email address or other electronic address notified by the Company to the members as the Company's email address or other electronic address; or
- (d) sending it to the fax number notified by the Company to the members as the Company's fax number.

68. Notice to members

68.1 Written notice or any communication under this constitution may be given to a member:

- (a) in person;
- (b) by posting it to, or leaving it at the address of the member in the register of members or an alternative address (if any) nominated by the member for service of notices;
- (c) sending it to the email or other electronic address nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any);
- (d) sending it to the fax number nominated by the member as an alternative address for service of notices (if any); or
- (e) if agreed to by the member, by notifying the member at an email or other electronic address nominated by the member, that the notice is available at a specified place or address (including an electronic address).

68.2 If the Company does not have an address for the member, the Company is not required to give notice in person.

69. When notice is taken to be given

A notice is:

- (a) delivered in person, or left at the recipient's address, is taken to be given on the day it is delivered;
- (b) sent by post, is taken to be given on the third day after it is posted with the correct payment of postage costs;
- (c) sent by email, fax or other electronic method, is taken to be given on the business day after it is sent; and
- (d) given under clause 68.1(e) is taken to be given on the business day after the notification that the notice is available is sent.

Financial year

70. Company's financial year

The Company's financial year is from 1 July to 30 June, unless the directors pass a resolution to change the financial year.

Indemnity, insurance, and access

71. Indemnity

71.1 The Company indemnifies each officer of the Company out of the assets of the Company, to the relevant extent, against all losses and liabilities (including costs, expenses and charges) incurred by that person as an officer of the Company.

71.2 In this clause, 'officer' means a director or secretary and includes a director or secretary after they have ceased to hold that office.

71.3 In this clause, 'to the relevant extent' means:

- (a) to the extent that the Company is not precluded by law (including the Corporations Act) from doing so; and
- (b) for the amount that the officer is not otherwise entitled to be indemnified and is not actually indemnified by another person (including an insurer under an insurance policy).

71.4 The indemnity is a continuing obligation and is enforceable by an officer even though that person is no longer an officer of the Company.

72. Insurance

To the extent permitted by law (including the Corporations Act), and if the directors consider it appropriate, the Company may pay or agree to pay a premium for a contract insuring a person who is or has been an officer of the Company against any liability incurred by the person as an officer of the Company.

73. Directors' access to documents

73.1 A director has a right of access to the financial records of the Company at all reasonable times.

73.2 If the directors agree, the Company must give a director or former director access to:

- (a) certain documents, including documents provided for or available to the directors; and
- (b) any other documents referred to in those documents.

75. Reading this constitution with the Corporations Act

75.1 The replaceable rules set out in the Corporations Act do not apply to the Company.

75.2 While the Company is a Registered Charity, the ACNC Act and the Corporations Act override any clauses in this constitution which are inconsistent with those Acts.

75.3 If the Company is not a Registered Charity (even if it remains a charity), the Corporations Act overrides any clause in this constitution which is inconsistent with that Act.

75.4 A word or expression that is defined in the Corporations Act, or used in that Act and covering the same subject, has the same meaning as in this constitution.

76. Interpretation

In this constitution:

- (a) the words 'including', 'for example', or similar expressions mean that there may be more inclusions or examples than those mentioned after that expression; and
- (b) reference to an Act includes every amendment, re-enactment, or replacement of that Act and any subordinate legislation made under that Act (such as regulations).

PART B

SEPARATE BANK ACCOUNTS

1. In relation to the Public Fund listed in Part A of this Schedule:
 - a. the Company must maintain a separate bank account for the Public Fund;
 - b. the Company will attract tax deductible gifts and donations into the Public Fund (listed on the Register of Cultural Organisations). These monies will be kept separate from other funds of the Company and will only be used to further the principal purpose or objects of the Company. Investment of monies in the Public Fund will be made in accordance with the guidelines for public funds specified by the ATO from time to time;
 - c. the public will be invited to contribute to the Public Fund;
 - d. the Company must determine which bank account to deposit monetary gifts and proceeds of sales based reasonably upon the intention of the donor and reason for the donation or gift;
 - e. the Company must not credit to the bank account money or property that is not intended for the Company;
 - f. interest earned on any of the Company's bank accounts must be credited to that account;
 - g. the Company may use its funds to pay for the reasonable costs of operating and managing the Company. Examples of such costs include fundraising expenses, bank fees and charges, stationery costs, staffing costs and accounting and audit fees;
 - h. the Company's Public Fund must operate on a not-for-profit basis and moneys received into the Public Fund (including but not limited to any surplus funds in the Public Fund) must not be distributed to members of the management committee or members, beneficiaries, controllers or owners of the Company except as reimbursement for out-of-pocket expenses incurred on behalf of the fund or proper remuneration for administrative services; and
 - i. the Company must issue a receipt for gifts to the Public Fund and must ensure that the receipt states:
 - (i) the name of the Company and the name of the Public Fund in receipt of the gift (if applicable);
 - (ii) the Australian Business Number of the Company;
 - (iii) the fact that the receipt is for a gift;
 - (iv) the amount of gifts of money;
 - (v) a description of any gifts of property;
 - (vi) the date of the gift; and
 - (vii) any other matter required to be included on the receipt pursuant to the requirements of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

DISSOLUTION, WINDING UP OR REVOCATION OF TAX-DEDUCTIBLE STATUS OF PUBLIC FUND

2. If upon the winding-up or dissolution of the Public Fund listed on the Register of Cultural Organisations, or its endorsement as a deductible gift recipient is revoked, there remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property or funds, the property or funds shall not be paid to or distributed among its members, beneficiaries, controllers or owners (as the case may be) but shall be given or transferred to some other fund, authority or institution having objects similar to the objects of this Public Fund, and whose rules shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income among its or their members, such fund, authority or institution to be eligible for tax deductibility of donations under subdivision 30- B, section 30-100, of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.=

AMENDING THE GOVERNING DOCUMENTS

3. The department responsible for the administration of the Register of Cultural Organisations will be notified of any proposed amendments or alterations to provisions for the Public Fund, to assess the effect of any amendments on the Public Fund's continuing deductible gift recipient status.

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

4. A committee of management of no fewer than three persons will administer the Company's Public Fund. The committee will be appointed by the board of the Company. A majority of the members of the committee are required to be 'responsible persons' as defined by Tax Ruling TR 95/27.
5. The Company will otherwise comply with the provisions set out in Tax Ruling TR 95/27.

MINISTERIAL RULES AND STATISTICAL INFORMATION

6. The Company must comply with any rules that the Treasury Minister or the Minister for the Arts make to ensure that gifts made to the Public Fund will only be used for the Company's principal purpose.
7. The Company must provide to the department responsible for the administration of the Register of Cultural Organisations statistical information on the gifts made to the Public Fund every 6 months.
